

We the undersigned declare that this manuscript is original, has not been published before and is not currently being considered for publication elsewhere.

We confirm that the manuscript has been read and approved by all named authors and that there are no other persons who satisfied the criteria for authorship but are not listed. We further confirm that the order of authors listed in the manuscript has been approved by all of us.

We confirm that each author has disclosed on the form below any conflict of interest, in accordance with Elsevier's standard guidelines. These are summarized below,<sup>a</sup> and given in full at: www.elsevier.com/authors/author-rights-and-responsibilities#responsibilities.

We understand that the Corresponding Author is the sole contact for the Editorial process. He/she is responsible for communicating with the other authors about progress, submissions of revisions and final approval of proofs.

Sincerely,

NAME	SIGNATURE	DATE	CONFLICT OF INTEREST (State NONE if there is no conflict of interest)
Beatriz Mella Lira		31/10/2019	NONE
Antonio Paez		31/10/2019	NONE

<sup>a</sup> A conflict of interest may exist when an author or the author's institution has a financial or other relationship with other people or organizations that may inappropriately influence the author's work. A conflict can be actual or potential. At the end of the text, under a subheading 'Disclosure Statement', all authors must disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest including any financial, personal or other relationships with other people or organizations within three (3) years of beginning the work submitted that could inappropriately influence (bias) their work. Examples of potential conflicts of interest which should be disclosed include employment, consultancies, stock ownership, honoraria, paid expert testimony, patent applications/registrations, and grants or other funding.
